DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on April 15, 2009 has been entered.

Claim Objections

2. Claims 2-5 are objected to because of the following informalities: The claims should be written as a complete sentence including an indefinite article (e.g., "A" and "The") at the beginning of each claim and "tamper proof" should be either one word or hyphenated. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. Claims 2-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Specifically, the claims are rejected for the following reasons:

The structure of the container is not clearly set forth in the claims.

- The phrases "the container comprising", "the tube has", and "the tubular container comprising" is at best redundant, but appears to set forth structure for a container assembly as well as the subcombination of the tube.
- The location of the threads on the neck and inner skirt are not set forth in claim 5. The neck can be internally or externally threaded and vice versa for the inner skirt.
- On which part of the cap does the flexible tongue reside?

- Wherein the tongue flexes upon contact with the fixed ledge of the tube, it is unclear how this structure is a tamper-proof structure since the claims only set forth flexing and no other arrangement to indicate breakage or that the closure no longer rotates. If there is breakage, what part of the container assembly breaks. If the closure no longer rotates, how is it then opened?
- Where in the interior of the cap is the flexible tongue located? Is it on the inner skirt, the second inner skirt, or the top surface, or another portion of the cap? Although the claims are interpreted in light of the specification, limitations from the specification are not read into the claims. See In re Van Geuns, 988 F.2d 1181, 26 USPQ2d 1057 (Fed. Cir. 1993).
- Does the conical portion (claim 3) fit within the hole as well as the spherical portion (claim 5)?

Claim 3 recites the limitation "the annular ledges" in lines 2-3. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Dependent claims not specifically mentioned are rejected as depending from rejected base claims since they inherently contain the same deficiencies therein.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 2-5 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments filed April 15, 2009 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Regarding applicant's arguments of a tamper-proof structure, the specification as originally filed and the claims do not set forth how the flexing of the tongue upon contact with the fixed ledge of the tube renders this a tamper-proof structure.

In response to applicant's argument that the flexible tongue and fixed ledge are set forth in the claims to allow engagement, applicant is reminded that although the claims are interpreted in light of the specification, limitations from the specification are not read into the claims. See In re Van Geuns, 988 F.2d 1181, 26 USPQ2d 1057 (Fed. Cir. 1993).

Conclusion

6. Applicant is duly reminded that a complete response must satisfy the requirements of 37 C.F.R. 1.111, including: "The reply must present arguments pointing out the specific distinctions believed to render the claims, including any newly presented claims, patentable over any applied references. A general allegation that the claims "define a patentable invention" without specifically pointing out how the language of the claims patentably distinguishes them from the references does not comply with the requirements of this section. Moreover, "The prompt development of a clear Issue requires that the replies of the applicant meet the objections to and rejections of the claims." Applicant should also specifically point out the support for any amendments made to the disclosure. See MPEP 2163.06 II(A), MPEP 2163.06 and MPEP 714.02. The "disclosure" includes the claims, the specification and the drawings.

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Various prior art closures teaching features similar to those disclosed and/or claimed are cited for their disclosures.

8. In order to reduce pendency and avoid potential delays, Group 3720/80 is encouraging FAXing of responses to Office Actions directly into the Group at (571) 273-8300. This practice may be used for filing papers not requiring a fee. It may also be used for filing papers which require a fee by applicants who authorize charges to a PTO deposit account. Please identify the examiner and art unit at the top of your cover sheet. Papers submitted via FAX into Group 3720/80 will be promptly forwarded to the examiner.

9. It is called to applicant's attention that if a communication is faxed before the reply time has expired, applicant may submit the reply with a "Certificate of Facsimile" which merely asserts that the reply is being faxed on a given date. So faxed, before the period for reply has expired, the reply may be considered timely. A suggested format for a certificate follows:

I hereby certify that this correspondence for Application Serial No. _____ is being facsimiled to The U.S. Patent and Trademark Office via fax number 571-273-8300 on the date shown below:
